RABBI CHAIM RICHMAN

Thursday Evening, June 17th, 2010
Refreshments at 7:00pm – Lecture at 7:30PM
Hilton Hotel – Houston Hobby Airport
8181 Airport Blvd. Houston, TX 77061

Rabbi Chaim Richman, International Director of the Temple Institute in Jerusalem, Israel will be visiting Houston. Rabbi Richman is one of the best-known English speaking authorities in the world concerning research into the Holy Temple and the practical aspects of creating the necessary components to restore the Holy Temple in Jerusalem. Rabbi Richman and his wife Rena are also active in outreach through Torah-based teaching to both Jews and non-Jews.

Their work includes producing regular audio and video programs, which are available on UniversalTorah.com, Arutz Sheva and some cable/satellite channels. These shows include studies in the weekly Parasha, the ongoing television series Light to the Nations, Bat Melech with Rena Richman, Temple Talk and various timely presentations.

Rabbi Richman has unique insight and perspective concerning the current political, economic and religious situations facing Israel, the US, and the entire world. Both Rabbi Richman and Rena underscore the message of hope that the Torah brings to both Jew and non-Jew through its timeless traditions and truths for all mankind.

RABBI RICHMAN BRINGS AN URGENT MESSAGE FROM ISRAEL: Prophecies are coming to pass now - they are the secret of every headline, every negotiation... come to learn how the future of Jerusalem will affect the entire world! He will also be exhibiting the completed Breastplate for the High Priest, featuring the 12 stones of the tribes of Israel.

A WOMEN'S TORAH CLASS WILL BE CONDUCTED BY MRS. RENA RICHMAN ON FRIDAY, JUNE 18TH AT NOON. PLEASE CALL 281-826-2264 TO RSVP AND LEAVE YOUR CONTACT INFORMATION. THIS WILL HELP US PREPARE FOR YOUR ATTENDANCE AND CHOOSE AN APPROPRIATE VENUE TO ACCOMMODATE ATTENDEES.
